Vinalopó Medio, Pinoso/El Pinós

This is a great value plot which is within a stones throw of the main town of Pinoso with all your day to day facilities. the great advantage of this plot is that you can walk into town and have access to bars, restaurants, shops, et cetera as well as great for kids who could either walk or cycle into school. The plot is fully fenced and comes with a point of end, both of which need to be connected. Access is very good via a tarmac road and a short track. There are neighbours in the vicinity but with 10,000 square metres you will have your privacy. The plot currently has nothing planted on it so offers a complete blank canvas for you to locate your dream home and also landscape it how you wish. The plot has been recently fully fenced.We have been designing and building homes in the area since 2004 and as such have a wealth of knowledge and experience which we can bring to bear in order to help you realise that last project and various builders we are sure to be able to help you realise your dream.
