

210,000 €

Reference: RS17405 Bedrooms: 4 Bathrooms: 2 Build Size: 200m²

Costa Blanca South, Monóvar

The house features ample space on each floor and a garage that provides automatic access to the residence. At the main entrance next to the spacious garage is an entryway leading to both floors and a staircase made of wrought iron and marble. On the first floor there is a large kitchen with a small bar area and a big pantry. The large living room has a fireplace that makes life more enjoyable during those few winter months. The ground floor includes a restroom and one bedroom as well as an outdoor patio where you will find the water heater,...etc. On the first level there's another fully functioning kitchen along with primary bedrooms and another large living room for watching television,...etc. The bathroom has recently been remodeled equipped with all conveniences from its modernization Rooms are quite spacious especially the master which boasts generous dimensions and through the hall leading to the rooms there's access to the second floor which is half enclosed. In this level there's a great outdoor barbecue, a little garden and a big table for celebrating outdoors with your family and friends. On this level you have an opportunity to build a solarium or sauna...?? If you want to enjoy a great house with two independent floors, this is your chance.