Costa Blanca South, Torrevieja

It is a concept of homes located a few meters from the sea in the city of Torrevieja that stand out for their quality, care and design.

The lagoons located in Torrevieja, are declared a Natural Site and are of great interest as the largest wetland ecosystem in the south of the province of Alicante, for its size and habitat.

22 houses with a unique character. A gradient of blues that make up the bottom of the sea. Each floor of the building corresponds to a type of blue in relation to its depth. From the intense and dark ocean to its most superficial and celestial layer.
