Inland Almeria, Vélez-Rubio

Here you will see a charming authentic village house in a tiny quiet village, Tonosa. Where peace and vast views are daily fare. The house is situated on a narrow, asphalted road, near a forest with almond fields at the front and an antique washing place. The village of Tonosa is located a few kilometers from Vélez-Rubio, a bustling village with various tapas bars, restaurants, shops, pharmacists and a medical center. You enter the house through the hall that opens onto the spacious living room with built-in wood stove. The existing furniture is included in the sales price. The kitchen is equipped with the necessary equipment and a fireplace / barbecue where you can barbecue at will. On the ground floor you will also find the bathroom with shower, toilet and sink, and a spacious bedroom. An authentic staircase leads you to the upper floor. You come out on a large open space. From here you come to a landing with two more spacious bedrooms and two smaller rooms adjacent to it. The house is supplied with electricity and city water. The house contains many original and authentic Spanish elements such as thick walls, the wooden beams in the ceiling, the fireplace / BBQ in the kitchen, the wooden window shutters on the top floor. The house is in very good condition and may just need a coat of paint to give it your personal touch.
