Alto Guadalentín, Lorca

If you are looking for a stylish, large property with a very good finish, then this property is definitely worth viewing. This huge villa stands on the edge of a small village in the province of Murcia. The property stands on a 2 ha plot, with productive olive trees. In addition, there is a large warehouse for you to set up and use as you wish. Let's take a closer look at the property. As you enter the plot through the electric gate, you notice the stately style of the house. The statues of two lions guarding the entrance to the house, the stately staircase to the terrace that surrounds the house and leads to the front door. Aren't you curious to see what this house looks like on the inside? Let us enter the villa through the back door. You enter the huge garage which is fully tiled and the walls are very nicely finished. Adjacent to the garage is an office space and a laundry room, both very spacious. From the garage you enter the first living area with a beautiful, fully equipped kitchen and a stylish living room. Note the finish of the floors, the marble tops in the kitchen and on the kitchen table. Attention has been paid to the details. In the living room you will find a large wood-burning stove that heats the whole room. We now go to the ground floor. Here too, you will find a fully fitted kitchen and a spacious living room, all with gleaming marble floors. The large windows and finishing of the doors give the whole a chic look. The house has a total of five spacious bedrooms and four bathrooms, all very stylish and finished with quality materials. Now let's go outside again. The house has a beautiful enclosed outdoor terrace with swimming pool, a whirlpool bath, a barbecue area and a spacious, fully equipped outdoor kitchen. Can you already see yourself enjoying this with your family and friends? Imagine those long summer evenings where you are together and enjoy all the good things life has to offer.
