Inland Almeria, María

With spectacular views and facing the Sierra de María, we would like to present this spectacular family home. Composed of two floors plus basement, it has all kinds of details of high standing and comfort that makes this house a luxury home. In front of the entrance door, stairs and a terrace with awning welcome us. Behind the entrance door, a wide hallway with good lighting reveals several solid wooden doors. Behind the first one, a huge living room with open kitchen. From here we can access a covered patio (laundry area), a pantry and the terrace, where there is enough space to enjoy a good meal. We are surprised by the high quality of the interior of the house. The kitchen has a breakfast bar, built-in electrical appliances, etc. On this same floor there is a large master bedroom suite with dressing room, bathroom and windows with mosquito nets. Three more bedrooms and another bathroom with shower complete the ground floor of this beautiful house. Going up the marble stairs we access the first floor where we are told that another apartment can easily be built we find another spacious living room with pre-installation for another kitchen, access to a sunny terrace with incredible views, a double bedroom, a bathroom and plenty of space to make a second bedroom if desired. And finally, we go down to the basement. Here we are surprised by another open plan fully equipped kitchen with a living room with fireplace. From here, we can go to a courtyard with a chicken coop and a machine room (where we find the oil tank as a second option for the heating, the osmosis system of the house and the water purifier). Through another door we enter the garage, with space for more than three cars, an extra large woodshed (with wood for years) and the wood boiler that heats the whole house. Here ends the visit to a surprisingly beautiful and spacious house, with finishes of high standing and made with much love, thinking about the comfort of the family and with a South orientation that makes the delicacies of the person who inhabits it, a great opportunity!
