Endless Potential for Customization

As you enter the house, a hallway connects the main rooms on this floor. There are four large rooms, including a living area with a fireplace. The layout is ready for your vision. Create bedrooms, a bathroom, and a spacious kitchen to your specifications.

Double doors from the living room open onto a balcony. To the right, a room with water and a fireplace is perfect for an outdoor kitchen. From the balcony, enjoy views of the village and your private garden or courtyard.

Bright Spaces and Traditional Features

Upstairs, you will find a bright room with an open fireplace. This area divides into three separate rooms, all filled with natural light. One room overlooks the garden, making it ideal for a bedroom or office. Formerly, this space was used for grain storage.

Flexible Ground Floor and Garden Access

On the ground floor, discover five more rooms and a family bathroom. These rooms, once used for animals, offer endless potential for living space or storage. Two doors lead out to the courtyard or garden, providing flexible access and the chance to create a garage if desired.

Utilities and Authentic Character

The property is connected to mains electricity, sewage, and water. There is also a well with natural spring water and a pump, ready for updating. With both front and rear access via paved roads, this townhouse is practical and full of character.
