Inland Almeria, Turre

RECENTLY REDUCED

This is a spacious 3 storey property situated in the heart of the traditional market village of Turre. The triplex is semi detached and only a 3 minute walk into the village centre where you can find bars, shops, restaurants and banks.

There is an entrance porch to the home which leads through into the hallway, from here is the main living / dining room which has street views and access into the very large fully fitted kitchen. There are ample storage units and it has a very rustic design throughout. From the kitchen is a back courtyard and utility area. Also on the ground floor there is a family shower room and a double bedroom which could be used as a study or winter lounge.

A central staircase leads up to the first floor where there is a family shower room, 2 double bedrooms and a master bedroom with an en suite.

The central stairs lead up to a second floor where there is an open landing, shower room and 2 further bedrooms.

From the second floor there is access up to the private roof solarium which boasts breath taking views over the village roof tops, the church steeple and up to the surrounding mountains. There is an outside bar and seating area, ideal for entertaining and BBQ´s.
