Atalaya is a charming area situated at the eastern end of Estepona on the Costa del Sol, Spain. Divided by the A-7 road, it comprises two sectors: beachside and hillside. The beachside is bordered by the Casosola urbanisation to the east and El Presidente to the west. The hillside extends towards the Benahavis road and El Pilar, with La Alqueria to the north. Amenities in Atalaya: Shopping: The area boasts several shopping centres, with the Diana Shopping Centre being the most prominent. Here, you'll find a variety of businesses, including bars, restaurants, a supermarket, a chemist, and more. Other centres like Biarritz and Atenea offer additional services, ensuring residents have access to essential amenities. Golf: Golf enthusiasts will appreciate the Atalaya Golf Club, which features two courses set amidst picturesque surroundings. Education: Families will find two public schools within the vicinity, making it convenient for residents with children. Healthcare: Nearby healthcare facilities include the IVEI Clinica Vascular Marbella, offering various medical services. Proximity to the Beach: Atalaya Isdabe Beach is directly accessible from the area, providing residents with the luxury of a beachfront lifestyle. The beach is characterized by its sandy and pebbly stretches, offering a tranquil spot for relaxation. Nearby Attractions: San Pedro Alcántara: Approximately 4 km away, this town offers additional shopping, dining, and entertainment options. Puerto Banús: A short drive will take you to this renowned marina, known for its luxury boutiques, vibrant nightlife, and waterfront dining. In summary, Atalaya provides a harmonious blend of coastal living and modern conveniences. Its strategic location, coupled with a range of amenities, makes it an ideal choice for those seeking a balanced lifestyle on the Costa del Sol.
