Vinalopó Medio, Novelda

We present an exceptional rustic land located in the tranquil town of Novelda, covering a total area of 38,865 m². This plot stands out for its great potential for agricultural development or as a long-term investment thanks to its unique and attractive characteristics. One of the main benefits is the availability of water supply, which represents a significant advantage for any activity related to crops or sustainable projects. Additionally, the mountainous environment offers stunning panoramic views and invites enjoyment of outdoor activities connected with nature. This space not only guarantees privacy and tranquility but also provides close access to essential urban amenities offered by Novelda; ideal both for those looking to retreat from daily hustle and bustle as well as agricultural entrepreneurs interested in maximizing their productive yield.
