Costa Blanca North, Benidorm

We bring to your attention a new apartment in Sakura Tower, 100 meters from the coastline, where you can arrange it completely yourself, providing the room with the furniture you need and a design that will delight you every day. The location of the complex is difficult to imagine better - everything is at hand here. This apartment is for those who are not ready to compromise and if they already buy housing by the sea, then by the sea! The urbanization is closed from outsiders and contains several large swimming pools, a recreation area, a playground for children, and a gym with modern equipment. For your convenience, there is an elevator on the territory of the urbanization that will take you directly to the street and shorten the path to the embankment and the sea. The apartment is sold together with a parking space and a storage room.
