Close to popular spots known and loved by the British community. Local restaurant/bar – just a 1-minute drive away Bugarillas – only a 5-minute walk, with shops, a supermarket, and a mini market offering British products. This property combines comfort, convenience, and a prime location, making it ideal for both holidays and year-round living. New Shopping Center Project in Garrucha According to La Voz de Almería (August 12, 2025), in an interview with Garrucha's Urban Planning Councillor, Álvaro Ramos, during the Hoy por Hoy Levante program on Cadena SER, it was announced that the municipality is about to move forward with this ambitious project, located in the Las Bugarillas area. In addition to the commercial infrastructure, the plan also includes the construction of approximately 300 housing units in later phases. (La Voz de Almería) Meanwhile, Diario de Almería highlights that the Andalusian Regional Government (Junta de Andalucía) has already given the green light to an urban planning modification in Sector 3, which corresponds to the area between the Las Bugarillas roundabout, Camino Bascuñana, and the Garrucha-Villaricos road. The complex will cover a total surface area of 318,000m², and will feature a mix of commercial, residential, leisure, and hotel uses.
