Discover this exclusive 90 m² apartment located in front of the charming coves of La Albufereta, perfectly equipped for swimming and water sports. This home has been designed to enjoy the Mediterranean every day. With two spacious double bedrooms, the master suite stands out for its private bathroom and direct access to a spectacular terrace with breathtaking sea views. The second bedroom also features a full bathroom, ideal for guests or family. Its bright living room connects through large sliding doors to a cozy 14 m² terrace where you can relax under the sea breeze. This property showcases details that enhance its elegance, such as marble floors, a modern and fully renovated independent kitchen that is energy optimized; all designed for your daily comfort. Equipped with air conditioning (cool-heat) and ceiling fans in all rooms and the terrace, ensuring comfort throughout the year. The location is unbeatable: right outside you will find the TRAM stop that provides quick access to the center of Alicante and other important areas of the city. Additionally, you can enjoy year-round access to the community pool located within the complex, as well as parking exclusively for residents in front of the building. This apartment represents not just a place to live but a tranquil lifestyle by the sea.
