Bathed in natural light, the apartment features a generous living and dining area with working fireplace, that opens onto a partially covered terrace with panoramic views across the Mediterranean, Gibraltar, and Africa; a fully equipped, independent kitchen with ample workspace and well compartmented spacious cabinets; two generous sized en-suite double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and with the master enjoying direct terrace access; as well as a guest toilet that adds convenience for visiting friends and family. Additional highlights include hot and cold air conditioning, a private parking space, and a storage room in the underground garage. The community is beautifully landscaped with mature gardens and a sun-drenched swimming pool, and is home to year-round residents, adding to its sense of security and neighbourly charm.
