Costa Blanca North, Finestrat

These exclusive villas are located in the privileged environment of Sierra Cortina, Finestrat, near Benidorm, combining an environment of nature by the sea. The complex has 11 independent villas.

They are single-family homes with minimalist architecture, in a natural space that combines elegance and comfort, in an environment surrounded by nature and trees native to the Mediterranean region of the Bay of Benidorm. The careful architecture of a unique design and the exclusive details inspired by the sea are perfectly integrated into the natural environment that surrounds and envelops the homes.

Plots of 400 square meters on which double-height homes are built with a surface area of more than 130 square meters. The extensive gardens allow you to enjoy a pleasant rest in the open air or a swim in your own pool surrounded by Mediterranean trees that provide privacy to the home.

The design is designed to enjoy life outside and inside but with maximum privacy, maintaining a fluid union between the terraces and the pool area. These houses stand out for their construction on two levels, on the main floor there is a large bedroom, a bathroom and a living room with a kitchenette equipped with 40 square meters, and with large windows to make the most of the hours of natural light from the Mediterranean. On its rest floor it has two large bedrooms equipped with a bathroom and balconies with their own terraces that offer the possibility of enjoying privileged views.
