Climate:

The Costa Blanca's climate, often considered the best in Europe, enables a very sociable and healthy outdoor lifestyle, characterized by sports and leisure facilities, and exciting, cosmopolitan resort towns that stand out for their top-quality services, some of them exclusive and considered truly luxurious. All of these services cater to discerning customers who seek quality and proximity.

The Costa Blanca boasts over 300 days of sunshine a year. A paradise with excellent connections to all of Europe. Alicante-Elche Airport boasts modern facilities and easy access from anywhere in the province.

Around:

Calpe is a municipality located on Spain's Mediterranean coast. It is famous for its beaches, such as Arenal-Bol. Not far away is the Roman site of Baños de la Reina, which includes sea pools carved from stone. On a headland to the east lies the Peñón de Ifach, a massive limestone formation home to a wide variety of birds. At its foot are the ruins of Poblade Ifach, a medieval walled city. The Muralla Roja (Red Wall) is an iconic castle-like building designed by Spanish architect Ricardo Bofill.

The Costa Blanca continues to attract people from all over Europe, and around the world, because it offers a unique quality of life in a beautiful setting on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, surrounded by mountains and lush vegetation.

In addition to the golf courses and marinas along the coast, the area also offers skiing in the nearby Sierra Nevada, Javalambre, and Valdelinares mountains, paradises for winter sports enthusiasts with beautiful natural landscapes. The Costa Blanca offers a uniquely rich lifestyle, where the best beaches and coves of the Mediterranean combine with an interior filled with mountains and towns that hide unique cultures and historical monuments.
