Climate:

The Costa Blanca's climate, often considered the best in Europe, enables a very sociable and healthy outdoor lifestyle, characterized by comprehensive sports and leisure facilities, and exciting, cosmopolitan resort towns that stand out for their top-quality services, some of them exclusive and considered truly luxurious. All of these services cater to discerning customers who seek quality and proximity.

The Costa Blanca boasts over 300 days of sunshine a year. A paradise with excellent connections to all of Europe. Alicante-Elche Airport boasts modern facilities and easy access from anywhere in the province.

Around:

The residential complex is located within walking distance of the area's largest shopping center, which offers all kinds of services, including bars, restaurants, clothing stores, supermarkets, and more, and is well-connected.

Although located inland in the province of Alicante, at an altitude of 100 meters, San Miguel de Salinas is only four kilometers from the Mediterranean Sea and only 10 kilometers from the tourist town of Torrevieja. This town in the Valencian Community is a true vantage point over the Mediterranean and is popularly known as "The Balcony of the Costa Blanca." Its proximity to the sea, as well as its peaceful and tranquil atmosphere, combines a typically Mediterranean landscape and climate, with mild, spring-like temperatures.

The Vega Baja region offers a wide range of sports facilities and activities, allowing both amateur and elite athletes to enjoy sports. The region's culinary riches, with delicious recipes, some dating back to ancient times, allow us to delight in unforgettable flavors from the sea and the garden.

The Costa Blanca continues to attract people from all over Europe, and around the world, because it offers a unique quality of life in a beautiful setting on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, surrounded by mountains and lush vegetation.

In addition to the golf courses and marinas along the coast, the area also offers skiing in the nearby Sierra Nevada, Javalambre, and Valdelinares mountains, paradises for winter sports enthusiasts with beautiful natural landscapes. The Costa Blanca offers a uniquely rich lifestyle, where the best beaches and coves of the Mediterranean combine with an interior filled with mountains and towns that hide unique cultures and historical monuments.
