Around:

If there's one place where the sun shines year-round, it's the Region of Murcia. An area with a warm climate and calm waters that lap the coast, every day the crystal-clear blue of the luminous, clear sky flows through every corner and accompanies the lives of the people who live there.

The Costa Cálida continues to attract people from all over Europe, and from around the world, because it offers a unique quality of life in a beautiful setting on the shores of the Mar Menor, surrounded by mountains and lush vegetation.

In addition to the golf courses and marinas along the coast, the area also offers skiing in the nearby Sierra Nevada, Javalambre, and Valdelinares mountains, paradises for winter sports enthusiasts with beautiful natural landscapes. The Costa Cálida offers a uniquely rich lifestyle, where the best beaches and coves of the Mediterranean combine with an interior filled with mountains and villages that hide unique cultures and historical monuments.

- Cartagena and its modernist buildings on avenues leading down to the port and flanking the Roman theater. A city of contrasts, open to a natural harbor provided by the bay and surrounded by natural enclaves such as Calblanque to the east and Cabo Tiñoso to the west. The city is a transit port for large cruise ships that come to explore the region and enjoy its culture, gastronomy, and festivals, declared of international tourist interest.

- Murcia , the most welcoming capital. Murcia experienced its splendor during the Baroque and Contemporary periods, when it was filled with palaces and churches with beautiful altarpieces. The façade of the cathedral, one of the most important in the Spanish Baroque, dates from the same period. Today, it is a bustling city, full of services and life, easily accessible via its extensive network of highways that connect it to the different towns in the region as well as to the adjacent provinces. It has several hospitals, both private and public, providing a magnificent healthcare and care network.

The calm waters of the Mar Menor lap the beaches of this large, unique marine lagoon, ideal for water sports and family swimming. Across the land barrier separating it from the sea lies the Mediterranean, on long beaches along La Manga del Mar Menor. There are two marinas: Lo Pagán, a Mar Menor port for smooth, protected sailing, and San Pedro del Pinatar, close to the natural setting of Las Salinas and from which to sail along the Mediterranean beaches.

- Quality education within your reach. Located nearby are two British schools, King's College and El Limonar, where Spanish and European students meet in early childhood education. Two private universities, the University of Murcia and the UCAM, complete the city's educational offerings.
