The property comes with two adjoining plots, one of 960 m² and another of 2,853 m², providing plenty of space for gardens, orchards, or even a private pool. The house itself sits beside a 70 m² courtyard and includes a 50 m² garage, ideal for parking, storage, or future workshop space. Inside, the home is full of character and natural light. On the ground floor, you'll find three bright bedrooms, a cozy living room with a traditional fireplace, and a large kitchen area that can easily be transformed into a spacious modern kitchen-diner opening onto the patio. There's also a small storage room, perfect for keeping everyday essentials organized. The upper floor is as large as the ground floor, offering ample additional space that can be converted into more bedrooms, a studio, or a guest area, allowing you to tailor the home entirely to your lifestyle. While the property is in need of renovation, it offers excellent potential to design and refurbish it entirely to your taste, whether you're dreaming of a rustic countryside getaway or a comfortable family home. Cañada del Trigo is a quiet and welcoming village, surrounded by vineyards, almond groves, and rolling hills. It's the perfect place to enjoy the tranquility of the countryside without feeling isolated. The hamlet lies just 10 minutes from the vibrant town of Pinoso and about 20 minutes from Jumilla, both known for their excellent local wines, traditional markets, and Mediterranean charm. The nearby town of Pinoso offers all essential amenities, supermarkets, restaurants, schools, and medical services, while maintaining the charm of authentic Spanish life. With its friendly community, excellent cuisine, and cultural festivals throughout the year, Pinoso makes the perfect complement to your serene country living in Cañada del Trigo.
