Sunny and affordable family home with balcony and parking Welcome to this charming and well-proportioned 85 square meter three-room apartment, located on the first floor of a building with an elevator - perfect for young families, seniors and anyone who appreciates accessibility and comfort in everyday life. The home faces west, which provides plenty of afternoon and evening sun – something that is especially noticeable out on the private balcony where you can enjoy a glass of wine or a cup of coffee in the sun. The floor plan is well thought out with three spacious bedrooms, a fresh bathroom and an inviting living room that together create a pleasant living environment with space for both relaxation and socializing. The house was built in 1978 but is well maintained, with an elevator and good accessibility – even for those with reduced mobility. In addition, a parking space is included in the price, which provides extra convenience in everyday life. This is a home for those looking for functional accommodation in an area close to services, communications and all the comforts of life. Please contact us for more information or to book a viewing. We will of course conduct digital viewings if you are unable to be there in person.
