10,000 m² Building Plot for Sale in Salinas, Alicante This 10,000 m² plot in Salinas offers an excellent opportunity for anyone looking to build a home in a peaceful countryside setting while staying close to town. The land has irrigation water connected, with drinking water and electricity available nearby for quick and easy connection. It also had building permission in the past, making it suitable for a future construction project (subject to reapplication). The plot is flat, easy to access, and ideal for a villa, small agricultural project, or a countryside retreat. Best of all, it is within walking distance to town—only 7 minutes on foot or 2 minutes by car. About the area: Salinas is a charming inland village surrounded by open countryside and mountain views. It offers a relaxed lifestyle with essential amenities such as shops, cafés, restaurants, a school, sports facilities, and a medical centre. The nearby towns of Sax, Elda, and Villena provide additional services, and Alicante airport and the beaches of the Costa Blanca are roughly 35–40 minutes away. The location is perfect for those wanting space, privacy, and nature without being isolated.
