In addition to the generous roof terrace, there is a sizeable private terrace leading directly from the lounge, perfect for morning coffee, afternoon refreshments or relaxed outdoor dining. The lounge features large double doors opening on to this terrace, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor feel and there is also a second side door from the lounge that leads to a smaller private terrace, ideal for additional light, fresh air and a quiet seating area. The kitchen has been newly installed and includes modern appliances together with ample storage and worktop space. Both bathrooms have recently been refurbished and the property also benefits from upgraded air conditioning throughout. The two bedrooms are generously sized and feature fitted wardrobes. A staircase from the lounge leads to the upper floor, which is currently used as an additional lounge or reading room/chill-out area, offering direct access to the impressive roof terrace. Other residents with similar property layouts have converted this space into a third guest bedroom or utilise a sofa bed for occasional overnight guests. Residents also enjoy the use of attractive communal gardens and swimming pool as well as an allocated underground parking space.
