Charming renovated home with sunny location and inviting patios In a pleasant and quiet neighborhood awaits this well-maintained semi-detached house that offers a harmonious combination of modern comfort and homely character. Here you live in a carefully renovated two-story house where every detail has been chosen with care - from the updated facade and fresh windows to the tasteful interior that is included in the purchase. It is a home to move straight into and start enjoying from the first moment. The well-thought-out floor plan includes three bright bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, making the home ideal for both permanent living and holiday living. The built-in wardrobes provide ample storage, and the generous amount of light helps to create a warm and inviting atmosphere in each room. The living room feels open and social, and from here you reach the home's patios - the place where summer evenings, morning coffee and leisure time get an extra golden edge. The balcony on the upper floor is perfect for relaxing, while the terrace on the ground floor invites you to both eat and spend sunny hours. The south-facing location ensures that the home is bathed in light almost all day. The house was built in 2001 but feels like new thanks to the extensive renovation both outside and inside. The heating is individual via electricity, and a practical storage room provides additional space for storage. This is a home for those looking for comfortable, move-in ready and stylish accommodation with plenty of space for the whole family - in an environment where you can easily relax and enjoy everyday life. Welcome to discover a home where every detail is ready to become part of your new life.
