Costa Blanca South, Ciudad Quesada

Spacious 3-bedroom, 4-bathroom corner townhouse located in the sought-after area of Doña Pepa, just minutes from the town centre. Set within a secure gated community with a communal pool, this south-west facing home enjoys sunshine throughout the day.

The property is semi-detached and sits on a corner plot, offering extra privacy and space. It features two independent living areas, each with its own kitchen, making it ideal for extended family living, guests, or rental potential. The downstairs has been converted into additional living space, while the upper level is fully separate with its own kitchen.

The house has been partially renovated, including a modern refurbished kitchen, renovated bathroom, and a stylish outdoor barbecue area, perfect for entertaining. Multiple balconies provide pleasant outdoor spaces, and the home benefits from private parking.
